Allagash was organized in 1886 as Allagash Plantation; disorganized in 1933. However, it did become Incorporated in 1966.

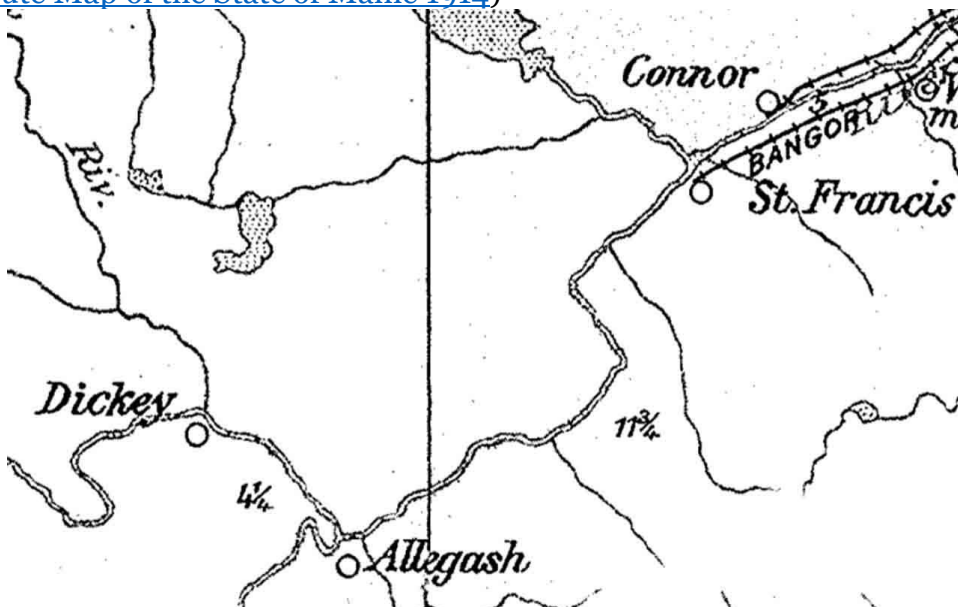

Note: Areas that became Aroostook County were set off from Hancock County to form Penobscot County in 1816, Piscataquis County in 1838, and Aroostook County in 1844.

During the history of Allagash, there have been two post offices.

Briefly, the history of these two is as follows:

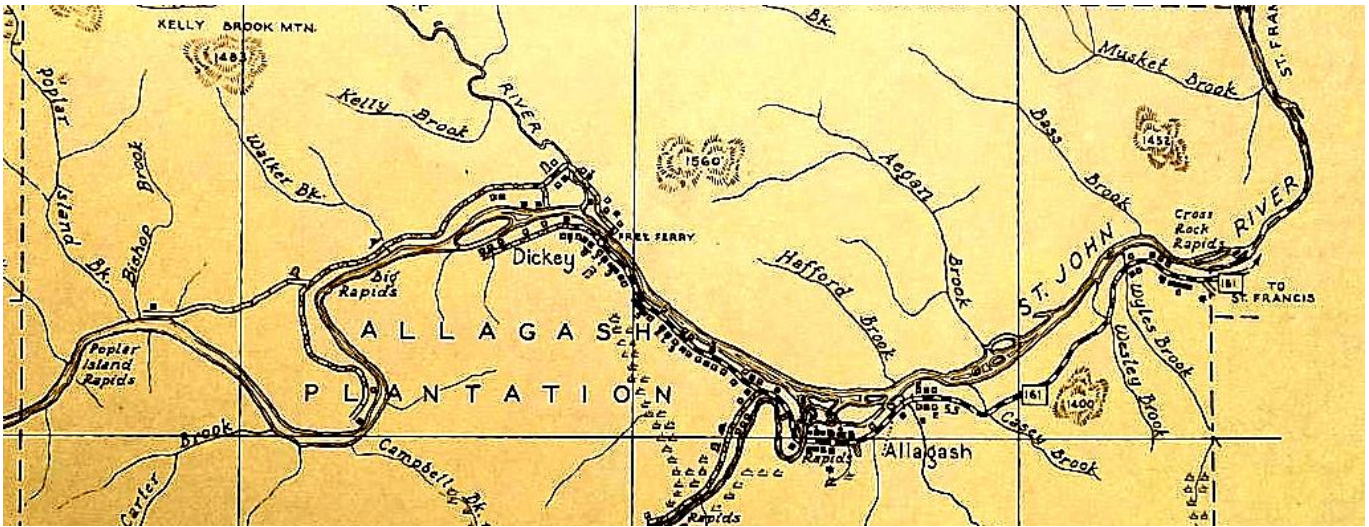

1. Allegash Post Office was established on 8 February 1894 and was renamed on 1 November 1924 as Allagash Post Office, which closed on 31 August 1926.
2. Dickey Post Office was established on 11 November 1905 and closed on 30 September 1921.

In 1914, there were two post offices in Allagash: Allegash and Dickey. (source: Post Route Map of the State of Maine 1914)

Allagash Plantation, which is nearly the size of four full townships, has two settlements that had post offices, Dickey and Allagash. This image from the 1938 Maine General Highway Atlas, published by the State Highway Commission, illustrates the pattern of settlement.

Post Offices from Allagash are listed below. In addition, postmarks collectors have provided from the town of Allagash for this project have been included and highlighted in Blue.
